

Do You Have To Go Now

The Drifters

Do you have to go now, do you have to
Oh, stay here with me, stay here with me, I need your company
Just when I was sure, babe, we were getting to know each other
You say your mother's expecting you for tea

Been seeing you for a long time now, and I know you're still quite shy
We only kiss when we say hello, and when we say goodbye

Do you have to go now, do you have to
Just when I was sure, babe, we were getting to know each other
You say your mother's expecting you for tea

You only stay for an hour each day, then you say you've gotta go
Let's take a chance, let it all hang out, your mom will never know

Do you have to go now, do you have to

Do you have to go now, do you have to
Just when I was sure, babe, we were getting to know each other
You say your mother's expecting you for tea
