

Nobody but Me

The Drifters

Who's gonna kiss you when its kissing time
Kissing time kissing time
And who's gonna hold you when its holding time
Holding time holding time
Who'll take your hand on every mountain to climb

Nobody but me no no
Woh me oh no
Woh me oh no no no no
Nobody but me

Who's gonna warm you when its cold at night
Cold at night cold at night
Who's gonna cool you when the sun is bright
Sun is bright sun is bright
Who'll never let you get out of sight

Nobody but me no no
Woh me oh no
Woh me oh no no no no
Nobody but me

Nobody but me no no
Woh me oh no
Woh me oh no no no no
Nobody but me

Who's gonna be there when your friends all leave
Friends all leave friends all leave
Who'll make you happy so you'll never grieve
Never grieve never grieve
Who'll be your friend if you will just believe
Nobody but me no no
Woh me oh no
Woh me oh no no no no
Nobody but me no no
Woh me oh no
Woh me oh no no no no
Nobody but me
