The Driver Era

Well, should I come up the stairs? You let down your hair
Tell me what you wanna hear, tell me how you really feel

Baby, baby
Where did you come from?
I'll go crazy, baby
Without your love

Because I've done this before
She won't call you back
And me not knowing where you are
Is a heart attack

Baby, baby
I want you to fall
Into my arms
Yeah, into my arms

If I were a phantom
I'd ride with you
But I couldn't stand it
If I can't touch you
Invisible too

Well, should I come up the stairs? You let down your hair
Tell me what you wanna hear, tell me how you really feel

Baby, baby
Where did you come from?
I'll go crazy, baby
Without your love

Because I've done this before
She won't call you back
And me not knowing where you are
Is a heart attack

Baby, baby
I want you to fall
Into my arms
Arms
Arms
Arms

(Arms, arms) So crazy for you, baby, yeah
So crazy for you, baby (Arms)
So crazy for you, baby, yeah (Arms)
So crazy

Into my arms
Into my arms
