

Out of the Rut

The Ducky Boys

Do you ever feel like you want to kill?
You want to scream but you just can't find the will.
Life hits you with a baseball bat.
It makes you harder so you just get up and attack.

How many times can a man get up?
How many times can you break the rut?
Life tells you that your hopes are through.
fk you! You just gotta do what you do.

Have they ever told you you aren't good enough?
Have they ever laughed in your face just because they could?
Life gets hard and the times get rough.
You gotta pull your spirits up and out of the mud.

How many times can a man get up?
How many times can you break the rut?
Life tells you that your hopes are through.
fk you! You just gotta do what you do.

Want me to show you I can get back up?
Want me to show you I can break the rut?
