The Dykeenes

I'm already a liar you're already alone
In the heat of the hour, I was bang out of tone
I'm already a cheat you're already a crutch
I'm already aware that I've taken too much
Will I ever realise that I don't need it?
Will I ever realise that I don't need it?
Will I ever realise that I don't need it?
Will I ever realise?

Did I bring you down?
I never meant, I never meant
I never meant it dear
Did I bring you down?

I'm already a liar you're already alone
In the heat of the hour, I was bang out of tone
I'm already a cheat you're already a crutch
I'm already aware that I've taken too much
Will I ever realise that I don't need it?
Will I ever realise that I don't need it?
Will I ever realise that I don't need it?
Will I ever realise?

Did I bring you down?
I never meant, I never meant
I never meant it dear

Bring you down (no)
Bring you down

[Interlude]

On this day, what you want me [muffled radio chatter]

Bring you down (no)
Bring you down

Did I bring you down?
I never meant, I never meant
I never meant it dear
Did I bring you down?
I (bring you down, no)
I (bring you down)
Bring you down
