Pay Attention

The Eames Era

Kiss kiss hug hug
See you when I see you, wanna see you like you never get enough
And hug hug
Tell the truth now I'll give you the run around
You know I never answer when I want you to think I'm over there
And kiss kiss
Pay attention to my blow career cigarettes jump back
Tanqueray tonic black palms heart attack
And eyeballs in the left pocket
And I'm thinking I can see it all, I can see it all
Take off and come back

Left her in the house and everybody left up on the tracks
But your smile
And circle gets a square I left you standing there
And everybody thinks that my obligations head to east, or so they think
So now it seems that I've been left up in the last crossfire
And everybody wonders where you and I are Why we're not at that party like we should be
Well I can tell you where, but I know it'd kill you!
Yeah, well let me calm your curiosity
Cause you have not been playin on my team
But I am not that ordinary
You'll see in time
But I could tell you right the beginning
