

Wholl Be The One You Love

The Easybeats

Tick tock, tick tock, tick tock, tick tock

All my life I've been searchin'
For someone to love, to love me
Like I love you

I've been there and I've been 'round
I've been lost and I've been found
Still I can't find anyone like you

Wanna meet John, so long Peter
(Who'll be the one you love)
Maybe be me, wish you could see
There'll never be what you needed
(Who'll be the one you love)

There ain't nothin' else left in me
I stay out of lovin' and you don't see

(Who'll be the one you love)
(Who'll be the one you love)

All my nights I've been thinkin'
Of some way to have you
But I can't wait 'cause I'm not lost for time

Honey it's our time, wait no more
(Who'll be the one you love)

Run from London, am I to fall too
Some of our fault is on your throw
(Who'll be the one you love)

There ain't nothing that you can do
And I got so greased for you

(I'll be the one you love)
(I'll be the one you love)

There's a smile upon your face today
You're hearin' everything I say today
You're the girl that's gonna live with me
'Cause I want you

Da da dee-a da da da
Da da dee-a da da da
Da da daa
Dee-a da da da da
Ahahahahahahah

Who'll be the one you love
Who'll be the one you love

I'll be the one you love (Whoa-o-oo)
I'll be the one you love (Whoa-o-oo)
I'll be the one you love (Whoa-o-oo)
I'll be the one you love (Whoa-o-oo)
