

Beautiful

The Echoing Green

She mends the daybreak
She takes the heartache so far
When she's laughing
I can't help but hesitate
I can't help gravitate to her side

She's falling but never landing
I'm frozen when she's standing
Next to me
And I can see that

She moves like water touching silver
And she remembers
Grey days
