

Crybaby

The Echoing Green

I just need some time to get this right you're so hollywood so I guess you should be in the limelight sing high and swing low you've got the look can't you put on a show?
I'll tell you why it's gonna blow you're a star and nobody knows

R: shine so bright
well come on, crybaby!
I wanna take you, take you for a ride

a cigarette in your mouth with lips that scream, now now they pout so take your last drag
'cause the song you sing well it's sorry and so sad watch you do - I've seen better but at least you've found an easy lover rock hard and scream louder but you leave me with nothing to remember

R: shine so bright
well come on, crybaby!

and so you can't stop crying about all this love you've lost at least you have your stories it's just too bad they're boring.

R: shine so bright
well come on, crybaby!
