

Biggest Star

The Elected

I'm the biggest star you'll ever see so you can go, but know you'll miss me I'll leave it up to you either way you choose, oh honey I can't lose

I met a kitten in the street now I'm not one for cats, but this one got me and the streets are asleep and someone's playing blues but I'm not
I can't lose
no, these days I can't lose saw a new face the other day seems our times had had their way but me I can't complain I've seen bad days, too but you know me, kid

I can't lose

all my dreams came true, you should know so if you see her, would you tell her so? they're gonna know me at the bank I'm gonna eat my meals for free and when she sees me, I can't lose no, honey
I can't lose
no, honey
honey, I, I can't lose all right!
yeah!
