

I've Let The Devil Win

The Elijah

This is eating away at me
This is wearing me down
I don't belong here, I am afraid
I am the life you will never have
And will feel everything
I know you're broken and you're tired
And you wish I was dead
I'll fall asleep
I'll give you time
Just to be with yourself
But I will grow old
I will grow old in you
