

It's Automatic

The Enemy

Story of a broken heart
Starts with a girl in a hotel bar
It was on, she was the one
Fell in love in a little round bed
Watched the sun turn the whole sky red
It was on in room 401

Can't talk about it
There's nothing that a man can do
Can't live without it
But now I'm living without you

It's automatic in way over our heads
It's automatic love starts over again

Drank champagne and made our plans
You were my woman and I was your man
It was on, you were the one
When you held my hand it was love at first touch
Forever didn't seem like long enough
Now you're gone, you're moving on

Can't talk about it
There's nothing that a man can do
Can't live without it
But now I'm living without you

It's automatic in way over our heads
It's automatic love starts over again

When it gets you love it won't let you go
Builds you up and let you down
Leaves you on your own

It's automatic in way over our heads
It's automatic love starts over again
It's automatic in way over our heads
It's automatic love starts over again
It's automatic in way over our heads
It's automatic love starts over again
