The Equals

Mandy Dandy, she's as sweet as candy, let me tell you
Mandy Dandy, you're upsetting this heart of mine, I said
Mandy Dandy, she's as sweet as candy, let me tell you
Mandy Dandy, you're upsetting this heart of mine

When she goes to town, all the boys gather round
You would think it was a holiday
When she opens her mouth and the words comes out
They all listen to everything she says, they say

Mandy Dandy, she's as sweet as candy, let me tell you
Mandy Dandy, you're upsetting this heart of mine

Her beautiful lips you can't resist
You wish you were kissing them all the time
Just being in her arms and feeling her charms
Mister, it's like drinking wine, I said

Mandy Dandy, she's as sweet as candy, let me tell you
Mandy Dandy, you're upsetting this heart of mine, I said

I said, Mandy Dandy, she's as sweet as candy, let me tell you
