Only The Rain

The Escape Club

It's midnight and the stars And the bright lights Shine on to my wall And in a distant bar Someone's blowing A blue serenade But only the rain Will stay with me tonight Only the rain And only the rain Will keep me company now Since you went forever I've been around And around all the bad times That you cried in my arms That night you never came Out on the old lines Thought I head your train Now only the rain Will play it's song for me Only the rain Will keep me company now Till I get my feet back On the ground
