

Where Angels Cry

The Escape Club

Come with me she said
We only stay out of fear
But if you can stand and you can take my hand
Then we've got to get out of here

And I'll only see you in the forest
Where the tall trees hide the sky
But I'll only see you when the sun has gone
And the moon shines down
Where the angels cry

Last night I saw you
With a hope still in your eyes
Ever since I've known
That the truth is only
Moments from our lives

And I'll only see you in the forest
Where the tall trees hide the sky
But I'll only see you when the sun has gone
And the moon shines down
Where the angels cry

And I wasn't even really sure
I'd seen her face before
I close my eyes
Try to visualize
And if it was a dream
Do I believe in what I've seen
How can I find you
Where the sun doesn't shine anymore

I can't find a reason
But I don't seem to see her now
I still work all day
Throw my time away
As the wheels in the wheels
Go round and round

And I'll only see you in the forest
Where the tall trees hide the sky
But I'll only see you when the sun has gone
And the moon shines down
Where the angels cry
