The Essence

All alone
I'll always regret
I never know when
I might forget your face
Do you want to believe
I could only cry

And all this words
I'll never know why
I always believed
Always the same somehow
Do you want to break up
And believe I'm gone
But don't you believe
Just everything I say
I'll never know why
I always ran away
Do you want to believe
I would only leave

But watch this tonight
Another film gone
I'll never know why
I always sing this song
Do you want to believe
I could only sing

And I'll dance
And I'll scream
And I'll tear
The walls down
Once more
If I could only
Forget your heart
Forget your name
I'll never know why
I always say the same
