

Broken Finger

The Evens

Cables and wires
Rubber to rub your nose
Punctured in tire
It was your welcome home
Always a question
Always a question
Always (always)

When I see your first sound
You've been here forever
When I die, yeah, I'm gonna miss you so
You'll be here forever

When I hear your first lie
I've known you forever
When we die, yeah, we're gonna miss you so
We'll be here forever

First sound
First lie
First sound

Punctured inside
Out of your envelope
Enter life
Knowing in the unknown
In the beginning
At the beginning
You're home (you're home)

You're already home
