

Sooner or Later

The Evens

Sooner or later, the fall arrives
Sooner or later, resolve

But not soon enough

First comes illusion with its well laid plans
The strategy the strategy the strategy is so detailed

And then comes denial with its outstretched hands
Failing is not failing is not failing to the failing to fail

Sooner or later, the fall arrives
Sooner or later, resolve

But not soon enough
But not soon enough
No, not soon enough

With the crack of your door, open like a flood gate now
The damage are the damages the damage when the water recedes
There are people and pieces and poisons coming back at you
Failing is not failing is not failing till failing succeeds

Sooner or later, the fall arrives
Sooner or later, resolve

But not soon enough
But not soon enough
No, not soon enough
No, not soon enough

I've seen this scene before
I've seen this scene before
I've seen this scene before

When you lose your grip when the help arrives

I've seen this scene before
I've seen this scene before
I've seen this scene before

When you lose your grip when the help arrives

Sooner or later, the help arrives
