

Silver Garden

the everybodyfields

There's a part of you
Deep inside of me
Not the part that hides
Not the part that bleeds

and you've loved me for years
I won't ask you again
if there's nobody else
I won't ask you again.

And I'll go to the silver garden
To be with you
And I'll go to the silver garden
To dream of you

Theres a part of me
Deep inside of you
Not the part that cries
Not the part that screams

And I've loved you for years
Don't ask me again
If there's nobody else
Don't ask me again.

And I'll go to the silver garden
To be with you
And I'll go to the silver garden
To dream of you

Glad the sun still shines
Over this small town
And you're in my arms
When that same sun goes down

And i'll go to the silver garden
To be with you
And i'll go to the silver garden
To dream of you
