Corporate Cafeteria

The Expendables

Never mind about the world
We're too distracted by the sweet, sweet swirl
Of chrome tipped chocolate chip
Skyscraper money crunch
The corporate cafeteria is serving lunch

I try and try to fast all day
The media serves such a hot, hot plate
Of fabricated lies
Celebrity teeny-bop punch
The corporate cafeteria is serving lunch
The corporate cafeteria is serving lunch

I try and try to fast all day
But the media serves such a hot, hot plate
Don't have a reason to eat their lies
I know I have to fight it all my life
Under-cut the price and make me buy a bunch
The corporate cafeteria is serving lunch
The corporate cafeteria is serving lunch
