The Expendables

How many times must I awake to a mistake that I have made before
And Now I'm wondering, what happened
And why I'm on the floor

It must of had a good night.
I must have had a good time
Tonight will be a good night
Tonight will have a good time

Yeah were drunk again
Let's take one more down
Were not gonna stop tell we hit the ground
We don't need a resolution
It's just an 80 proof solution
Were not gonna stop.
Tell we hit the ground.

Now I'm too far gone
To realize through blood shot eyes that I have lost control.
That's when I don't think and the shots I drink are starting to take there toll

So many days I wake up stuck
And hung over
What did I say? Who did I f**k?
That's it I'm sober
But it's that time again and I am going down
