

Pillars

The Expendables

The monster and it's teeth
Devouring all it sees
The last thing I do retreat
Prevent the feast
Where do we go from here?
Be the headlights not the deer
Can't be controlled by fear
See everything clear

So aim to the eye
And let those arrows fly
It stands no chance when we're fighting side by side
This is our hall
And we built it after all
There's nothing that can make these pillars fall

These pillars will not fall
At all, at all, at all
These pillars will not fall
At all, at all, at all

The monster and it's ways
Unfortunate it will not change
Cannot be the ones to blame
This is its last day
Wish it well in death
Watch it take its final breath
Triumph is what we get
Expect nothing less

So aim to the eye
And let those arrows fly
It stands no chance when we're fighting side by side
This is our hall
And we built it after all
There's nothing that can make these pillars fall

These pillars will not fall
At all, at all, at all
These pillars will not fall
At all, at all, at all

These pillars will not fall
At all, at all, at all
These pillars will not fall
At all, at all, at all

The monster and it's teeth
Devouring all it sees
The last thing I do retreat
Prevent the feast
