

Wells

The Expendables

Can I draw some water babe, from your well.

Can I draw some water baby,
cuz mine has fell.

The bucket won't come up,
no matter how hard I crank.
The bucket won't come up,
i think it sank.

I walked the road
between your house and mine.
I held the bridge as it collapsed.
I hope the man at the gate
will help me through.
Unless he's holding on to you.

Holding on to you

How has your garden grown?
Is there fruit on the trees?
Do you need a laborer,
to pull up those weeds?

Oh I am so lonely baby,
in my house on the hill
Oh I am so lonely baby,
the silence kills

I walked the road
between your house and mine.
I held the bridge as it collapsed.
I hope the man at the gate
will help me through.
Unless he's holding on to you.

Holding on to you.

I wish that I could sit,
in your garden again.
And watch the stars at night,
from your bed.

I walked the road
between your house and mine.
I held the bridge as it collapsed.
I hope the man at the gate
will help me through.
Unless he's holding on to you.

Holding on to you
