

Walking Out On Love

The Exploding Hearts

Oh why are you walking out on love?
Oh why are you walking out on love?

Why are leaving,
You're saying goodbye,
Why don't you stay,
And give it one more try?

Why when you were happy here with me?

Oh why are you walking out on love?
Oh why are you walking out on love?

Gimme the reason,
The truth of my lies.
You're saying you love me,
Now you're saying good bye.

Why when you were happy here with me?

Oh why are you walking out on love?
Oh why are you walking out on love?

Why are you leaving,
You're saying goodbye.
Why don't you stay,
And give it one more try?

Why when you were happy here with me?

Oh why are you walking out on love?
Oh why are you walking out on love?

Walking out on love.
Walking out on love.
Walking out on love.
