

You're Black and Blue

The Exploding Hearts

I'm sittin' all alone in my room thinkin' about you,
Your lips so sweet your hair so black your eyes so blue,

Well I see you walk with another boy, it hurts me so,
You don't feel my pain, oh girl, you will know.

You're black and blue (black black, black and blue)
Black and blue (black black, black and blue)
Black and blue (black black, black and blue)
What can you do (black black, black and blue)

I've been back in town for a couple days, now I'm bored,
All I need is something new, ah girl, something more,
Than just you, (you don't know girl, it's hard)

You're black and blue (black black, black and blue)
Black and blue (black black, black and blue)
Black and blue (black black, black and blue)
What can ya do (black black, black and blue)
