

Amelie

The FAIM

She's got a beautiful mind
Too bad she's used to defying
Black hour with her head held high
She's runnin', runnin', runnin'

Fifteen at the end of her life
Cast out in the dead of the night
Broke heart and she doesn't know why
She's running, running, running

Amelie
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Amelie
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
For Amelie

(For Amelie)

She's like a rolling stone
Where she lays her head is home
Salvation's hard to find
When you're running, running, running

This time there's no need for goodbye
No one seen the tears that she's cried
Redemption doesn't come twice
When you're running, running, running

Amelie
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Amelie
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
For Amelie
For Amelie
For Amelie

Lonely angel
Take my hand (One more dance)
Dance with me
Until we die

(Lonely angel) Lonely angel
(Take my hand, one more)
(Dance with me) Dance with me
(Until we die)

Amelie
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Amelie
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
For Amelie
For Amelie

Well she's begging and fighting
Raised to the sky and she's fighting herself
Screaming, "Is there any way out?"
Only aching and shaking

From all the pills that she's taking
Now Amelie puts a gun in her mouth
