

Beautiful Drama

The FAIM

I think too much don't sleep enough
I live inside my head and every thought I have is you
I hate the way I love the way you wrap me round your finger then move on to someone new

Don't criticise my state of mind I'll be fine
Between the nights, I'm writing lines trying to find
Some peace of mind, coz every time I'm with you I'll be wondering why

I can't live without beautiful drama
There's no hiding from the will of a fighter
Let's talk about beautiful drama
Gimme a lover, who can't live without it

Come find me by the beautiful drama
Hands up, as we run through the fire
I can't live without beautiful drama
So kiss me harder, I can't live without it

Your nicotine, that candy dream, addicted to a memory, of holding on to you
I'm lost in you, what can I do, to make this night, last longer than the dirty lonely truth

Open my mind to paradise
Every night you touch me right
I close my eyes to the crime and realise
That every time with you I'll be wondering why

I can't live without beautiful drama
There's no hiding from the will of a fighter
Let's talk about beautiful drama
Gimme a lover, who can't live without it

Come find me by the beautiful drama
Hands up, as we run through the fire
I can't live without beautiful drama so kiss me harder, I can't live without it

Ah, ah
Nothing's ever gonna hurt enough for me
Ah, ah
Nothing's ever gonna hurt enough for me
Ah, ah
Nothing's ever gonna hurt enough for me
Ah, ah
Nothing's ever gonna hurt enough

I can't live without beautiful drama
There's no hiding from the will of a fighter
Let's talk about beautiful drama
Gimme a lover, who can't live without it

Come find me by the beautiful drama
Hands up, as we run through the fire
I can't live without beautiful drama so kiss me harder
I can't live without it

Ah, ah
I can't live without it
Ah, ah
Beautiful drama
Ah, ah
