

Broken Places

The FAIM

We grow stronger in the broken places
See ourselves in strangers faces
I was brave once
I was sane once

I'm loneliest on crowded stages
Most at home in outer space
Yeah, I was once them
Now, I know where

We crack and heal
We hide ourselves from the Heartache we feel alone and trapped in our cages
Yeah, it's been ages

We grow stronger in the broken places
So, break me, break me, break me, break me down
Life is too short, so I won't waste it
Break me, break me, break me, break me down

Break me, break me, break me, break me, break me, break me, break me, break me, break me, break me down

Falling on my knees I'm crawling
Heart held bound these voices calling
I'm a lost soul
I was once told

Fate is lost and always changing
So, hold your head and keep on walking
Through the sun rise
And the cold nights

We walk the road of every dark hollow
Memory that leaves our heart trapped in this rewind
Why can't I stop time?

We grow stronger in these broken places
So, break me, break me, break me, break me down
Life is too short so I won't waste it
Break me, break me, break me, break me down

You change me
You throw me around
But you can't keep
My hands tied down
And I hope
That you feel me
As I choke
On the words I fail to speak
So, don't let them slip away

We grow stronger in these broken places
So, break me, break me, break me, break me down
Life is too short, so I won't waste it
Break me, break me, break me, break me down

Break me, break me, break me, break me, break me, break me, break me, break me, break me down
