

Buying Time

The FAIM

What a world, what a day
Looking back, couldn't take
Never thought I'd come around
Put my head under the ground
Memories, fantasies
Seventeen, baby dreams
Trying to make it on the edge
Laugh at words we never said

I'm just buying time without you
Smiling's just a game without you
I don't wanna play
I don't wanna play
I don't wanna play this game no more
Cause I'm just buying time

When your moon kissed the sun
Felt a light leave the ground
Now I'm hearing what you say
Never thought you'd be erased
Novacaine for the pain
Had a hope, better day
Stay with you like a friend
Smile because you hadn't left

I'm just buying time without you
Smiling is just a game without you
I don't wanna play
I don't wanna play
I don't wanna play this game no more
Cause I'm just buying time

I'm just buying time without you
Smiling just a game without you
I don't wanna play
I don't wanna to play
I don't wanna play this game no more
Cause I'm just buying time

I'm just buying time without you
Smiling's just a game without you
I don't wanna play
I don't wanna play
I don't wanna play this game no more
(Play this game no more)
Cause I'm just buying time I'm just buying time
