I Can Feel You

The FAIM

Detach, detach, detach...
You had a bottle of tequila in your hand that day
He was holding onto you like you might get away
You caught me staring from the corner of a crowded room
I was so wasted, didn't notice you were staring too

They were playing INXS back on that drunken night
The moon reflected off my window to your blurry eyes
I tripped and spilled that red wine all up on your lingerie
I didn't know that you would take it off anyway
Take it off anyway

Lay your head next to me, I can feel you
Hearts on fire, burning flames of blue

Whoa, oh, whoa-oh
Whoa, oh, whoa-oh

Whoa, oh, whoa-oh
I can feel you, I can feel you
Whoa, oh, whoa-oh
I can feel you, I can feel you

Lightning crashes from the smashes, our hearts beat as one
Mascara running off your lashes, look what we've become Disconnecting from the world, abandon everything
Just a boy next to a girl, we could be anything
We could be anything
We could be anything

Lay your head next to me, I can feel you
Hearts on fire, burning flames of blue

Whoa, oh, whoa-oh
Whoa, oh, whoa-oh

Whoa, oh, whoa-oh
I can feel you, I can feel you
Whoa, oh, whoa-oh
I can feel you, I can feel you

And after all this time you're still the only one for me
We stand the test of time, I'll have you to infinity

Lay your head next to me, I can feel you
Hearts on fire, burning flames of blue
Lay your head next to me, I can feel you
Hearts on fire, burning flames of blue

Whoa, oh, whoa-oh
I can feel you, I can feel you
Whoa, oh, whoa-oh
I can feel you, I can feel you
