

Make Believe

The FAIM

Lost in my head
And I can't leave
Watching the rain
Falling away
Away from me

Days grow cold as I grow old watching my life through a window
So I sit watching the rain
And I can't leave

I want to feel something
I want to feel air that I can breathe
I'm tired of being nothing
I'm tired cause I don't want to be
Make believe

It happened again
I freed myself
From words never said
This road with no end
And there's no help

Lost and lonely strangers know me better then I know myself
So I sit watching the rain
And here I'll stay

I want to feel something
I want to feel air that I can breathe
I'm tired of being nothing
I'm tired cause I don't want to be
Make believe

All we are is guilty hearts in the sea of memories
Time goes by and people cry but I don't feel anything
All we are is guilty hearts in the sea of memories
Time goes by and people cry but I don't feel anything

I want to feel something
I want to feel air that I can breathe
I'm tired of being nothing
I'm tired cause I don't want to be
I want to feel something
I want to feel air that I can breathe
I'm tired of being nothing
I'm tired cause I don't want to be
Make believe
