

Fiery Jack

The Fall

My face is slack
And kidneys burn
In the small of my back
Will never learn
Well I'm not going back
To the slow life
Cos every step is a drag
And peace is a kite of materials you never catch
Come up for a snatch
Up from hell
Once in a while

Cause I am Jack
From a burning ring
My face is slack
And I think think think

I just think think think
Too fast to write
Too fast to work
Just burn burn burn

I sat and drank
For three decades
I'm 45
Cause I am Jack
From a burning ring
And my face is slack
And I think think think
I just drink drink drink
Too fast to work
Too fast to write
I just burn burn burn

I eat hot dogs
I live on pies
I'm 45
Cause I am Jack
And I think think think
Just think think think
Too fast to write
Too fast to work
Just burn burn burn

And put down left-wing tirades
and the musical trades
And/or free trade
I say eat this grenade
To defend free trade
I said eat this grenade

Cause I am Jack
Some men from the docks
They are smart
Their brains are half
They never end
Just follow trends

But I am Jack
From a burning ring
My face is slack
Too fast to write
Too fast to work
I just burn burn burn
I am Jack
and the musical trades
And/or free trade
Andall free trade
I said eat this grenade
