From the back looked like a household pet
When it twirled round was revealed to be
A three-legged black-grey hog

See what flows from his mushy pen

He's the young generation dancing troupe
Try'na perform Country And Western

Never since birth not eaten in a day
Never since courtship stayed up some nights
He had a "Kingdom Of Evil" book under a German history book
He was contrite like that

See what flows from his slushy pen

Small, small location on huge covenant sodomised by presumption
Crooked traitor past revealed at last

He's here
He's here at last
I saw him

I swear
He's on the second floor
Up the brown baize lift shaft
