

Inevitable

The Fall

Like everybody you see, like everybody you see
The word this world from the prams

Inevitable
I love to dance
And it's Saturday again, very logical
You can just then pretend to be many
Say goodbye to your den in sound
It's so happy on Saturday
Bounce around on Saturday

The peculiar call in the query of
In Burmese right on the calling
The calling

You have a right to say it
From the law of the planes and the prams

Inevitable
Inedible

Just pretend to be many
Pretend to be many

The radio jam said it
You have a right to say it
It's beyond capable
In Burmese
Right on the calling
The calling

Happy times on a Saturday
The airwaves
Not since the Spring

Inevitable
Inevitable

Bye bye bye baby
Today

The calling
