The Features

Oh I walked to the record shop one sunny afternoon
To look at Rock n' Roll records
But there were none to see
The manager just laughed and said
Oh boy you must be crazy, vinyl is dead and that's the way it should be

But surely that isn't true
What would I do
Seems my girlfriend
Loves my LPs
More than she loves me

So with the speed of thirty-three and one third I will be
With the speed of thirty-three and one third I will be
The happiest person
The happiest person
The happiest person
The happiest person that I know
That I know

Oh, say what you wanna say
Nothing in this world can stop my girl
When she starts to dance
And you can do what you wanna do
Just turn the record when side one is through
So we can hear side two

Cause when the music begins
It never ends
Seems my girlfriend loves my LPs
More than she loves me

So with the speed of thirty-three and one third I will be
With the speed of thirty-three and one third I will be
The happiest person
The happiest person
The happiest person
The happiest person that I know
