

Love Is...

The Features

Silly games,
New relations.
Ain't it funny how
These things occur.
Communication without any sound

I can't explain what I can't comprehend.
All I know is nothing's stranger than,
Nothing's stranger than love is.
Love is holding you and other things
My feeble mind will never seem to understand.

Crazy kids,
Launching arrows
With their tiny bows.
If you're hit, best surrender.
Take it as it goes.

I can't explain what I can't comprehend.
All I know is nothing's stranger than,
Nothing's stranger than love is.
Love is holding you and other things
My feeble mind will never seem to understand.

You never know,
You never know what's there to be found.
No, you never know,
You never know what's waiting around.

You could have a heart of stone.
A heart of stone will crack like an egg
And put you on your knees where you'll beg.
Hope and pray to God that it never ends.
Never ends...

Love is...
Love is...
Love is...
Love is...
Love is...
Holding you
Love is...
And other things
Love is...
Holding you
Love is...
And other things
Love is...
Holding you
Love is...
And other things
Love is...
Holding you
Love is...
And other things
Love is...
Holding you
