

See You Thru

The Features

Knock, knock, knock
I'm knockin' on your front door
You don't wanna see me anymore, whoa
Ring, ring, ring, I call you on the telephone
But you're never at home, whoa

I'm holding on to what is gone
Holdin' on much too strong
It frightens me to be alone

Oh, you're running away
And there's nothing left to say
It's the least I can do
I will see you through
I will see you through

Oh my my, I think I made a big mistake
Didn't mean to cause you any pain
I try, try, try, but things will never be the same
Oh baby, ain't that a shame?

I wish that I had treat you right
I wish that I had found the time
'Cause now I'm just a lonely guy

Oh, you're running away
It's the least I can do
I will see you through
I will see you through

It's the least I can do
It's the least I can do
I will see you through
