

Tenderly

The Features

Is this the way?
Where should I start
To find what's hiding there
Within your heart?

From one to another
In one, out the other side
Trying to uncover
What no one may ever find

Tenderly, tenderly
Tenderly, tenderly

Is this the way
It's always been?
What's good for you
Is not for them.

From one to another
Never making up your mind
Hoping to discover
What you know you'll never find.

Tenderly, tenderly
Tenderly, tenderly
Tenderly, tenderly

Is this the way
It always ends?
You just imagine it,
What might've been.

In one, out the other
From one to another side
Trying to uncover
What no one will ever find

Tenderly, tenderly
Tenderly, tenderly
I gave that dick a bloody nose
