

Thursday

The Features

Thursday is the only day that I've been looking forward to Cause Thursday is the only day that on my way I run into you I've been trying hard, I've been trying hard for a while Change my walk and my talk and my hair try and make you smile

Ya da da da (ya da da da) (3x)

Try and talk to you speak to you tell you what's on my mind
You don't wanna hear about it know about it that's just fine
Give me a sign let me know everything's OK I don't know if I can hide all these feelings I've tried to convey

Ya da da da (ya da da da) (3x)

Hey hey hey
Why'd you have to say those things I've got a fragile heart
It's been torn apart at the seams
Try and talk to you speak to you tell you what's on my mind
You don't wanna hear about it know about it that's just fine

Hey.

Hey.
