

Fragile

The Feelers

He never felt so guilty
And it's never felt so right
I've never been a victim before
Never in my life

And I've never been jealous of the Fool on the floor
I've managed just to drag him home
I feel pleasantly raw

Oh little world
Do you want to play
Oh sexy girl
Do you think you'll stay

This crazy world
All my skies gone grey
Oh pretty girl
Please don't melt away

Well I've never witnessed change
Though I always thought I would
I've never been deranged
Though you always thought I was

I've never felt like killing
Cos I never gave a shit
I've never been a victim before
I guess you thought I was him
Well I'm not him

Oh little world
Do you want to play
Oh sexy girl
Do you think you'll stay

This crazy world
All my skies gone grey
Oh pretty girl
Please don't melt away

I'll bend and break
Cos I'm so fragile
I'll bend and break
Cos I'm so fragile

Oh little world
Do you want to play
Oh sexy girl
Do you think you'll stay

This crazy world
All my skies gone grey
Oh pretty girl
Please don't melt away

Lightning glances penetrate me

I'd better say my prayers
I'll take my chances in the wind
We'll see who really cares

I've never been a victim
Though you might disagree
I feel now
I'm finally free
