The Feeling

Every minute information
Woken by notification
By the bed and in the shower
Every second, every hour
Ignorance is gifting power
So there's no time to smell the flowers
In the garden weeds are growing
What can I survive not knowing?

Can't escape
Here it comes
Hearts will break

Cascade
All I do is wait for you to knock me down
Cascade
All I do is wait for you to knock me down
Stand in line, stand in line
Knowing it's just a matter of time

Past the storm the air smells sweeter
Selling rainbows by the meter
Praying to the one who see us
Allah, Buddha, Bowie, Jesus
Miss Simone is far from gone
Said it before she moved on
Seems another flood is coming
No use hiding, no use running

Is it love
Or
Is it hate?

Cascade
All I do is wait for you to knock me down
Cascade
All I do is wait for you to knock me down
Stand in line, stand in line
Knowing it's just a matter of time

All I do is wait for you to knock me down
Cascade
Read the news you'd better swim or else you drown
Cascade
All I do is wait for you to knock me down
Stand in line, stand in line
Knowing it's just a matter of time
