

Feel Something

The Feeling

I wanna touch
I wanna taste
I wanna feel something

I want the rush
Don't mind the pain
Just wanna feel something

I wanna sense magnificence
I wanna the sand
But you won't see me and that's alright
And you don't need me but that's alright
And you don't miss me and that's alright
And you don't feel me and that's alright

I want to cope not just survive
I wanna fight this time
I want to know that I'm alive
I wanna fly this time
And for [?] and don't retreat
I only learned one thing
That you won't see me and that's alright
And you don't need me but that's alright
And you don't miss me and that's alright
And you don't feel me and that's alright

Baby that's alright
Yeah

I believe that you
Stay numb and you play dead
Cause you scared to run and your Head goes and then exhale till
You've drowned out what you could not stand
I believe that your lies give the truth
Love me but you never did and I
I believe that you played dumb
As you stole years from a fool's fool son
Who's gone who's moving on, moving on Who's moving on moving on

Who's moving

And it feels alright
Alright
Yeah it feels alright
Alright
