

Hardest Stone

The Feeling

You are a pillar of the hardest stone,
Perfect and beautiful and all alone.
You'll never need me.
You'll never need me.
You are the pillar of the hardest stone.

What am I doing here,
Waiting on this suicide train?
'Cause you made it clear,
It doesn't matter to you either way.
But here I am
As stupid as i ever was,
Feeling blessed but damned (Thank you, Feeling Good!)
Like every fool does, does, does.
Like every fool does, does, does.

'Cause you are a pillar of the hardest stone,
Perfect and beautiful and all alone.
You'll never need me.
You'll never need me.
You are the pillar of the hardest stone.

I don't want you to fall,
But you'd learn something if you did.
So busy standing tall,
You've forgotten how to give.
But here I am
As stupid as i ever was.
I stick my head in the sand
Like every fool does, does, does.
Like every fool does, does, does.

'Cause you are a pillar of the hardest stone,
Perfect and beautiful and all alone.
You'll never need me.
You'll never need me.
You are the pillar of the hardest stone.

Well, don't go asking me questions,
I don't have any answers.
I'm just back on this train again.

'Cause you are a pillar of the hardest stone,
Perfect and beautiful and all alone.
You'll never need me.
You'll never need me.
You are a pillar of the hardest stone, yeah.
