

Lost

The Feeling

Why, don't ask me why
Everything changed
Heaven to hell
Calm seas to a swell
And now
All of my prayers are lost on the wind
Nothing to reach for, nothing to dream for
This is too real and all that I feel is lost

Lost inside my head
Away from my home
So far from myself
I don't even know me
I feel like I'm someone else

Hey, give me a chance
One little spark
A light in the window
Fight when there is no hope
Hope's just a word
Shaming me now
Something to reach for, something to dream for
But it's not real and all that I feel is lost

Lost inside my head
Away from my home
So far from myself
I don't even know me
I feel like I'm someone else

Lost

Why, don't tell me why
Someone has changed
All your devotion
All that emotion gone
Like all of my dreams
Lost on the wind
There's no one to cling to, no one to sing to Nothing is real when all that I feel is lost

Lost inside my head
Away from my home
So far from myself
I don't even know me
I feel like I'm someone else

Lost
