

Among The Missing

The Felice Brothers

Saturday and the wheels fine
Hung my clothes on a drying line
Stumbled in the deep blue sea
Would you like to come along with me

See the seagulls in the sky
Watch the dolphins passing by
Stumbled in the deep blue sea
Would you like to come along with me

I've been treading in the waves
Looking for the captains grave
Ohhhh in the deep blue sea
Won't you disappear with me

Find the children on their beds
See the postman on his head
Stumbled in the deep blue sea
Would you like to do some here with me
