

Refrain

The Felice Brothers

there's a letter on the office floor I'm off to the great kaleidoscope just a letter and nothing more I'm off to the great kaleidoscope

will you leave me with a kiss though I've warned you of the mystery in that grim northern rim there's a swallow on your mother's lawn I ring her doorbell til my finger broke I asked the swallow where my love has gone she's off to the great kaleidoscope will my future be revealed with the turning of a wheel

in that grim northern rim
