

Falling In Love

The Fixx

Well, you can hide all your secrets
Behind every stitch of the clothes that you wear
And you can cover your tracks
With your big city act that you play everywhere

But those slow sultry shadows in the back of your mind
Tell a tale on you
I can see it all falling one brick at a time
Love's finally coming to you

You're falling in love
Just when you're learning to be alone
You're falling in love
Just when you're yearning to make it on your own
Problems like these everyone needs
There has to be a way
Have what you want and get what you need
Every night and every day

Between method and madness your joy turns to sadness
When choices are made
You don't need to be choosing between love and losing
There's nothing to trade

Oh you can hold on to something and still let it go
When you want it to
And you don't need excuses 'cause everyone knows
Love's finally coming to ya

You're hesitating, and I'm just here waiting Wondering when you'll see
That you're already there, you've got something to share
Baby, share it with me
Share it with me

(Falling in love)
Just when you're learning
Falling in love
Just when you're yearning to make it on your own
Problems like these everyone needs
