The Fixx

Spell
Invoke a change I can feel
In my bones on which hang
Every hope ever dreamed
When all was lost and turned upside down
Spell become as real as my need
A source of joy I can breathe
Build a pillar of strength take the weight in my heart
Breaking down as I speak

I must forget to remember
I must remember to forget
Holding on to past moments
Here and now's all I get
Spell in this role I am cast
Every scene plays out reruns of the past
Should have known better
I got caught in a maze over and over again

I must forget to remember
I must remember to forget
I'm holding on to lost moments
Here and now's all I get
I must forget to remember
(I must remember)
Wipe the blood and the regrets
(I'll be forgetting you)
Holding on to past moments
(A spell will see me through)
Here and now's all I get

I got caught in the lights
Locked in the gaze
There was some kind of mirage through the haze
Oh spell
Oh spell
Change I can feel
In my bones on which hang
Every dream when all was lost
I must remember to
I'll be forgetting you
The spell will see me through
The spell will see me through
