

At The Prom

The Flamingos

Remember that night at the prom
I held you closely in my arms
And I looked into your eyes
And then I realized
I love you

I love you

Remember the first night we kissed
I held you in my arms like this
It was love then and it's love now
Can't you see

Can't you see

I remember, I remember that first night we kissed
When I held you closely in my arms
And I kissed your burning lips
It was love then, and it's love now
Oh my darling, can't you see
Tell me, can't you see

Remember that night at the prom
I held you closely in my arms
And I looked into your eyes
And then I realized
I love you

I love you

I love you

I love you
