

Bridge of Tears

The Flamingos

(Ah bridge of tears)
(Ah bridge of tears)

You told me you'd always love me
And you told me, "Have no fears"
But you left me just standing
Standing on a bridge of tears

You left me so hurt and lonely
Now my hours seem like years
I'll never never find peace of mind
Standing on the bridge of tears

Those happy hours we spent
Planning our wedding day
Made me feel our love was real
Why did you go away?

I love you, oh, how I love you
I need you, yes I need you
Here beside me, to guide me
Across my bridge of tears

Oh I need you
Take my hand, take my hand
Mmmmm-mm
